Izzy's Promise is hosting a conference for survivors, support workers & organisations on the subject of:

RITUAL ABUSE IN THE UK 10 YEARS ON

Izzy's Promise (formerly Tayside Ritual Abuse Support and Helpline Project TRASH) has been up and running for 10 years. It was started in 2001 by volunteers and service users out of a direct demand for services by survivors of ritual/organised abuse. Since then, Izzy's Promise has grown from strength to strength providing support and information to survivors of ritual abuse, training and consultancy services to support workers and other organisations, produced several books on the subject and recruited and trained many volunteers.

Main Speaker: Laurie Matthew

Laurie Matthew has experience working with survivors of ritual abuse for more than 30 years. Through Izzy's Promise she has worked with many survivors of organised/ritual abuse and carried out several consultations, surveys and research into the subject. She regularly acts as a consultant for other organisations including the police, social services and the voluntary sector. She has spoken at conferences in the UK and the USA, and she is in high demand to provide training, talks and awareness on organised/ritual abuse for a wide range of agencies. She is a published author on the subject of ritual abuse. Her published books about ritual abuse include; 'Who Dares Wins' 2001, 'BeAware: How to Support Young Survivors of Sexual Abuse', 2001 'Where Angels Fear: Ritual Abuse in Scotland', 2002, 'Fight! Rabbit! Fight!' 2003, and 'Behind Enemy Lines' 2004.
